What are cookies

Cookies are small pieces of data sent to your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the Services or a third-party to recognize you and make your next visit easier and the Services more useful to you. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

Essential Cookies:

- Persistent cookies, for authentication framework in order to form sessions; and
- Session based cookies, for maintaining your session and to support integration with the authentication framework to form your session.

Non-essential Cookies:

- Cookies to track acceptance of cookies; and
- Google analytics for product improvement.

Not all of the Services we provide use Google analytics, the only Services that currently use Google analytics are the SharePay and Virtual Card services.

How the Services use cookies

When you use and access the Services or any of our websites, we will place a number of cookies files in your web browser.

We use cookies to enable our websites and the Services to function.

We use persistent cookies on our websites and when you use our Services. We use only essential cookies to manage your session, authentication, and prevent fraudulent use of user accounts to provide the Services.

Third Party Cookies

Please note that third parties may also use cookies, over which we have no control. These third parties may include, for example, providers of external services like web traffic analysis services. These third-party cookies are likely to be analytical cookies, performance cookies or targeting cookies, for example Google Analytics.

What are your choices regarding cookies

By using our Services or accessing our websites you agree that we can place cookies and similar technologies on your device as explained above. If you want to remove existing cookies from your device you can do this using your browser options. If you want to block cookies being placed on your device, you can do this by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our website(s).
